

You are cordially invited to the...

HOW THE LAW WORKS FOR YOU

An interactive forum on law and order in New Zealand

Saturday 7 March 2009

10.30 - 4.00pm

Mancan House

Cnr of Cambridge Terrace and Manchester Street

Christchurch

(Ample parking around the back)

In response to The Office of Ethnic Affairs (OEA) ongoing engagement with communities, Law and Order/Safety and Security have been highlighted as an area of growing concern.

You are warmly invited to attend this exciting and interesting forum.

This gathering seeks to empower Chinese communities to actively participate in and improve their understanding and knowledge about New Zealand's justice system and procedural law and is an opportunity to meet with the Minister of Ethnic Affairs the Hon. Pansy Wong.

This forum an opportunity to:

- Encourage Chinese communities to be actively engaged in making submissions on law and order issues through the Governments Select Committee processes.
- Receive feedback on the pre-engagement safety and security forums held last year with many ethnic communities.
- Inform attendees on issues relating specifically to New Zealand's law and order policies.
- Identify further opportunities to assist you to participate in the legal process of New Zealand.

AVAILABLE SEATS FOR THIS UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY ARE STRICTLY LIMITED!
PLEASE RSVP TO

Candy.Wu.Zhang@dia.govt.nz

Phone: (03) 353 8323

Mobile: 027 206 2189